

Figure 6. Generalized propensity scores based on the matched pseudo-population values for hop yards where powdery mildew was not detected ($W = 0$) or was detected ($W = 1$). The generalized propensity score densities have the respective masses in regions of overlap, indicating covariates were successfully balanced.